70,000€- ID: ID-10087 - Guajar Alto - Move in now

Bedrooms/Habitaciones	4
Baths/Baños	2

Guajar Alto is a hidden gem in the Guajar Valley. It is reached from the Lecrin Valley by crossing over the Guajar mountains, a stunning drive with views to the Mediterranean at its highest point. The village is at the end of a good country road with waterfalls, fruit trees and cliffs flanking the road. It is about twenty minutes' drive from the Granada – Costa Tropical main road and ten minutes from there to the sea. The village itself has a bar and a restaurant both less than a minute from the house.

There are two parts to the house on different levels. On the ground floor with entrances from the street and with another entrance from a narrow, stepped rear street, is a granny flat with a salon/kitchen/dining room and up a few stairs a bathroom. All is in good condition. This is an ideal getaway for extra guests or any member of the family who wants their independence.

Up a ramp from the street is the entrance to the upper part of the house. From the main door there is a corridor leading to the salon. Off this corridor is a spacious double bedroom. The salon, which has an open fireplace making the house nice and cosy on those winter evenings, also has full length doors to a balcony allowing summer breezes to blow through the house. Past the salon is the bathroom and up a flight of stairs two more double bedrooms. Up a few more stairs is the roof terrace with views across the valley.

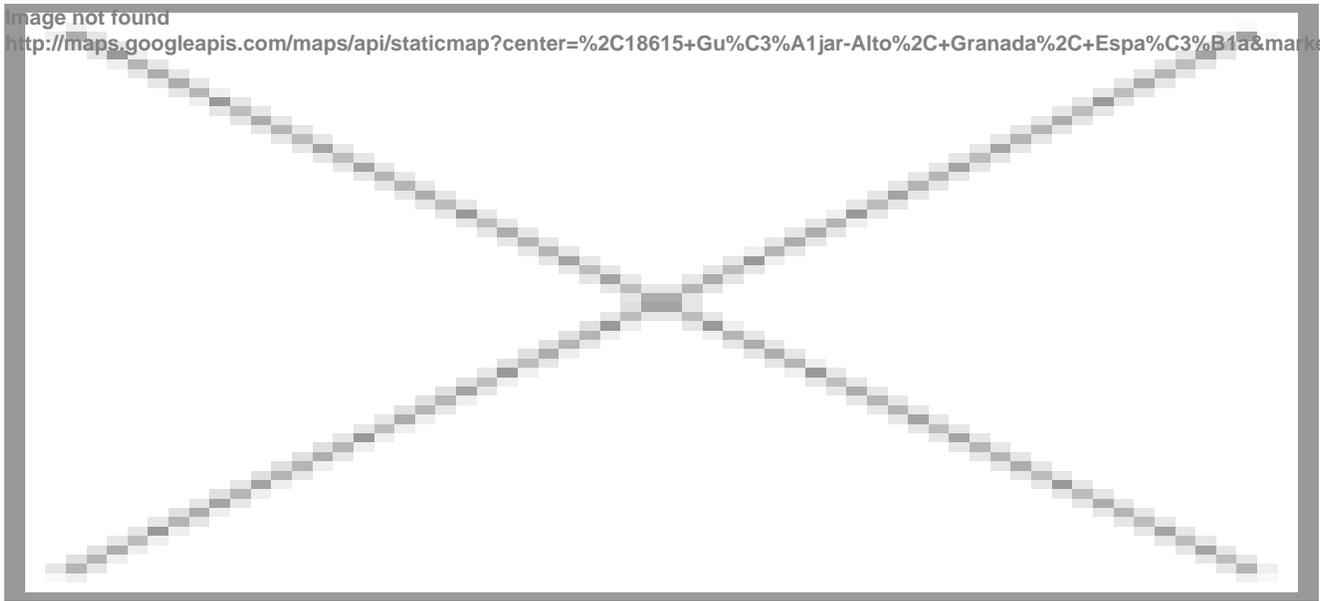

The house is surprisingly roomy, is in very good condition and could be moved into tomorrow. Just bring your toothbrush!
